ANOTHER POLICE MUDDLE.—Police Commissioner Frank Price, of the Second ward, yesterday preferred the following charge against Sergeant Jas.

T Smith
I respectfully prefer the following charge against Sergeant James T.
Smith of the police force of Alexandria Smith, of the police force of Alexandria city. That he deserted from the United States navy the 12th day of October, 1822, and und r the laws of the United sats when a person has deserted he is ble of holding any position under United States or exercising any ht of a citizen thereof. I think that unfit person to hold the posinon of sergeant of our police force or to be a member thereof, when such a person is not a ci izen of the United States, and I hope the board will set sistes, and i aspection to the set with set such time to investigate this charge and ave Sergeaut James T. Smith ample time to make such defense as he deems proper. I am prepared to establish the facts set fortn in the above charge when called upon.

Mr. Price handed the above to Mayor Simpson and requested him to call a meeting of the police board on next Monday or Tuesday night. The Mayor, after reading the charge, suggested that there was no State law regarding the matter, and handed the paper tack to Mr. Price, saying that as one of the members was absent from the city Mr. Price had better keep the paper until his return, when a meeting of the commissioners could be held and Mr. Price could then present the charges. The law under which Mr. Price preferred his charge is the following: "Al persons who descrited the miliry or naval service of the United States and did not return thereto or e, of themselves to a provost marshal ribin sixty days after the issuance of the procumation by the President dated the 11th day of March, 1865, are leemed to have voluntarily relinquishel and torfei ed their right of citizenp, as well as their right to become citizens; and such deserters shall be torever incapable of holding an office of trust or profit under the United States or of exercising any right of citizen thereof."- [Sec. 1996.]

Sergeant Smith said to-day that he felt no apprehension concerning the

Dr. Miller concluded to wait a few days until he shall have received the report of the analysis. Had he known one was being made he would not have called the meeting. Mr. B. Wheat, president of the water company, says he is as much interested as any other citizen in the matter ed as any other citizen in the matter and is as desirous of having the water tested, and to this end will have analyses made of the water in the reservoirs, beyond them and in the pipes, and should anything deleterious to health be found prompt measures will at once be taken to remedy the trouble. HORNETS AND HORSE FEED .- It is said that a man at Accotink, who sells feed to people whose teams stop there, is in the habit of setting the feed trough near a hornets' nest so that the horses are kept too busy to eat and thus leave their feed which the seller secures. A gentlemen from this city who stopped there yesterday says his horse which was tied to the mill was stung by a bornet and came near carrying the mill off in its efforts to get away. He would continue to carry liquor until midnight last night, when the traffic says another team ran off and caused much damage.

REPORTED POISONING .- It was rumored this morning that the hands at mored this morning that the hands at the fishing shore of Mr. Frank Price, some distance below this city, were recently made sick by the food prepared by Dave Manley, who is the cook at that shore. The rumor goes that some of the food was given to a dog which died soon after eating it, and that it was supposed that poison had found its way into the food. No confirmation of the rumor could be obtained.
